

Hallmarks of Quaker Values-Inspired Senior Living

We honor for all in our community ...

Inner Light in Each of Us

We honor the inner light in every person. Each of us has value, gifts to be shared, and a voice to be heard. We seek to create conditions that allow each person's light to be nourished and shine.

Being Community

We honor the importance of community as a philosophy, not just a physical place. Being community to us means seeking collaboration, acting with a spirit of inclusiveness, and welcoming diversity.

We believe that relationships and connectedness make for a more expansive and engaging world, and that we are enriched by the gifts of each other.

Presence

We honor the importance of recognizing and appreciating each person for who they are now, at this moment ... of knowing YOU!

We respect the journey that has brought you to this place and time in your life and your uniqueness. We value the importance of being in this moment with and for you.

Gentle Bravery

We honor the courage to be open to learning and change.

Our world calls on us to be nimble and flexible. We are willing to try something new and possibly to fail. We balance this with a recognition that sometimes, after careful deliberation and discernment, not changing may be the courageous act.

Our heritage calls for us to speak truth to power, while being respectful and honest. We encourage the willingness to put oneself "out there" for the benefit of another.

Integrity

We honor the truth, transparency, and the importance of giving and earning trust. We are accountable for our responsibilities and actions, for the stewardship of the many gifts in our care – human, financial, and natural. We live our values and honor our heritage through our commitment to excellence in care and service every single day.
